MESSAGE FROM MONSIGNOR

It is good to be back in the parish. I came back earlier than I originally thought and had Mass on Wednesday and Thursday of this past week. It is a challenge to read the prayers with one good eye so you will notice that I am taking it slow. I thank David Groven for volunteering to bring me to Hunter this weekend. I will probably need to set up some kind of sign-up sheet so that we can schedule volunteers to drive me back and forth. My left eye seems to be trying to open up although right now that is a mixed blessing as it gives me a double or ghost vision. I appreciate all the prayers and good wishes sent me and ask your continued prayer. I do not know how long the healing will take but in the meantime I can do some work with your help.

A Reading from the Book of Wisdom

There is no God but you, and you care for all of us. You don't have to prove that you judge fairly. Your strength gives you the power to do right, and because you rule over all, you have pity on everyone. When someone doubts how strong you are, you show your strength. And you correct everyone who is too proud. You are a powerful Master. But you judge us with kindness and rule with great mercy, because you have the power to do whatever you want. By doing such thing, you have taught your people that those who do right must also care about others. And you have given your children a wonderful hope by helping them turn from sin.

The word of the Lord.
